

SALAAM INSTITUTE
EDUCATION. PURIFICATION. PROPAGATION.

Fiqh

فقه

Prayer on Animals and Vehicles

Fardh and Wajib Prayers

Fardh and Wajib prayers are invalid when performed on a riding animal or in a moving vehicle

The same ruling applies to Sajdah al-Tilawah if the verse was recited or heard before mounting

Exceptions due to necessity:

- Muddy terrain
- Fear of a thieves or danger
- Inability to remount after descending

Stationary Carriage

If a carriage mounted on a camel is:

- Made stationary, and
- Connected to the ground (e.g., by a wooden support)

Then one can pray standing inside it

It takes the legal ruling of being on the ground

Voluntary Prayers While Traveling

Nafl Prayers on Animals/Vehicles

Outside city limits, a traveler can pray:

- Voluntary prayers (Nafl)
- Emphasized Sunnah prayers
- Salaah is performed by head movements
- Facing the Qiblah throughout is not required according to the travel concession

Filth on the saddle or stirrups is excused

Salaah While Walking

Performing ritual prayer while walking is not valid

One must stop and establish the prayer in a valid manner

For Nafl prayers:

One can pray sitting, even when capable of standing

Praying on a Ship

Prayer performed while sitting in a ship is valid, even without an excuse

However, the worshipper must:

- Turn toward the qiblah
- Every time the ship changes direction

Definition of Travel

Minimum Distance for Travel Rulings

Travel rulings apply when:

- A person leaves his place of residence.
- Intends to travel to a destination requiring at least three days' travel at a moderate pace

Once this distance is intended, the person becomes a traveller (musafir)

Concessions for the Traveller

A traveller can:

Delay fasting in Ramadhan and make it up later

Shorten (qasr) the four-rak'ah obligatory prayers:

- Zuhr
- Asr
- Isha

Fajr and Maghrib are never shortened

When Travel Rulings End

A traveller becomes a resident again when:

- They reach a city or village and
- Intends to remain there for 15 full days or more.

In this case:

- Four-rakah Salaah has to be completed
- Has to fast in Ramadhan

Returning Home

If intending to stay fewer than 15 days:

- He remains a traveller
- Qasr continues
- The choice regarding fasting remains

Returning Home

Travel rulings end when:

The traveller enters the limits of their permanent residence